

Baby, It's Warm Inside!

Come in from the cold and add a little heat to your winter routine with Bells of the Bluffs' "Winter Warm Up" on Sunday, February 25, in Hastings. Details at right. You'll hear selections from swing and ballads to marches and rock. So bring your friends and make some new ones...these hot musical numbers may melt your definition of handbell music!

Meet One of the Ringers

"I always loved handbells," says charter member Kathy Olson, "and jumped at the chance to play when our church purchased bells." She's been ringing ever since. Kathy says she finds Bells of the Bluffs provides an extra challenge, along with a variety of music. "I love how playing bells takes so much concentration; the rest of the world fades away." As for what she does away from Bells of the Bluffs, Kathy shared her husband recently retired and they are enjoying spoiling their first grandchild. Learn more about Kathy at bellsofthebluffs.org.

Bells of the Bluffs operates on the love of music and a small budget. Your help in spreading this passion is much appreciated. All donations are tax deductible.

Igniting Passion for Handbells

Not Your Typical Handbell Concert

We heard this more than once following our Music from the Heart 2 concert on February 11 in Red Wing. And that makes us smile! Because for Year 5, we're pushing our limits. Our first concert of 2018 was our most adventurous repertoire to date, ranging from Roaring Twenties to swing to rock. Add an exceptional bell solo, a tap dancing flapper, a small rock band, a reprise from two alums, a basket silent auction, and you have a memorable afternoon. We so appreciated our enthusiastic audience and those who helped make the basket auction a success. Many thanks to our hosts First Presbyterian Church and JuBELLation ringers!
